

Indigenous Language Revitalization: Strengthening Transmission, Sharing Practices, Addressing Challenges

September 7
2026

Dobra 72, Room 9a
Warszawa (hybrid)

10:00-10:15

Justyna Olko, University of Warsaw
Introduction

10:15-11:00

Sachiyo Fujita-Round, Daito Bunka University, Japan
Collaborative Revitalization of Endangered Ryukyuan Languages: Researchers, Communities and Individual Speakers in the Ryukyu Islands

11:00-11:45

Matthew Guay, Ryutsu Keizai University, Japan
Yaeyaman Language, Identity, and Power: An Overview of the Southern Okinawan Context in Japan

11:45-12:00

Coffee break

12:00-12:45

Valentina Sánchez Víctor, Preescolar José Clemente Orozco, Tepango de Rodríguez, Mexico
Proyectos colaborativos y transmisión de la lengua tutunaku: retos en la familia y espacios escolares en comunidades Indígenas en la región de Ahuacatlan y Tepango de Rodríguez, México
(Collaborative projects and the transmission of the Totonac language: challenges within the family and in school settings in Indigenous communities in the area Ahuacatlan and Tepango de Rodríguez, Mexico)

12:45-13:30

Discussion and conclusions
(moderator: Justyna Olko)